THE NEWS SCIMITAR | The Public Be Served

PUBLISHED BY THE MEMPHIS NEWS SCIMITAR COMPANY

Entered as Second-Class Matter at the Postoffice at Memphis, Tenn., Under the Act of March 3, 1879.

DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for reproduction of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in The News Scimiter, and also the local news published herein.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES—By carrier, 15c per week. By mail, posts d. 1 month, 49c; 3 months, 75c; 2 months, $1.00; 6 months, $2.00; nths, $4.00. NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

If you have trouble about getting your paper, call Main 4996 and the tter will be given immediate attention.

PAUL BLOCK, INC., Special Representative. 95 Madison avenue, New York: Malier's Building. Chicago, Little Building, Boston, Kresge Build-ing, Detroit.

NEWBERRY, CAPITALIST; BERGER, SOCIALIST: TAKE YOUR CHOICE

The Hon. Truman H. Newberry, a member of congress in the United States senate, and more than 100 of his friends and supporters have been indicted for fraud in the election, and fraudulent use of money in securing his election. Mr. Newberry was elected as as the nominee of the Republican party, and defeated Henry Ford, Mrs. R. E. M. the nominee of the Democratic party.

That Mr. Newberry is a Republican or that Mr. Ford is not Bue Lashiey Democrat does not enter into consideration of the fact that there

It was a hotly contested election. Many things, as usual in the frenzy of political campaigns, were said to the detriment of both candidates. Mr. Ford was denounced as a Socialist, an anarchist and a profiteer. Mr. Ford was defeated, but he came out of the contest with a clean record, and with a better understanditig of his patriotism and public interest on the part of the people.

Senator Newberry, in violation of all precedents, continues to occupy his seat in the senate. He is said to be the only senator in history to enter the chamber and take an active part in the deliberations of that body while under indictment.

Senator Newberry represents the so-called "conservative element," the "business interests," and is regarded as a man of sound ideas. Nothing radical about him.

Victor Berger, Socialist, was elected to the congress as a member of the house. His opposition to war, his treasonable utterances and his lack of faith in the constitutional institutions of the nation, as well as his conviction for violating the espionage law, caused the house to reject him as a member. If we recall correctly there was but one vote in favor of seating him,

The house did right. A man of his ideas, his record and his hostility to constitutional government has no right to a place in the great law-making body of the United States.

The charges developed by the grand jury in Michigan against Senator Newberry are not different from the charges filed in the contest in the senate. The senate has never gone into the charges against Senator Newberry.

Newberry and Berger represent two elements as far apart in their ideas as the poles.

Berger, outspokenly against the government, was elected by majority of his constituents, and is not fit to serve. Newberry, a commander in the United States navy, a graduate of the naval academy, an institution maintained by the government for training its naval officers, is indicted for buying his way into the con-Newberry and Berger are the products of two different Dick Ramsey Thomas, Senatoschools of thought. Their associates are different types. Laws | bia., Miss. have been passed to regulate and punish men of the Berger stripe It remains to be seen if the law is sufficient to reach the Newberry type, who occupy a higher place in the stratum of society. We have no sympathy with Berger, but we are convinced that he and men like him are the by-product of the society that

We are profoundly convinced that men like Newberry, suspected of buying their place in official life, are the main influence in producing men like Berger, who have no faith in our institu-

Mr. Newberry has the capitalistic idea that he is entitled to have anything he can afford to buy, even if it is the votes of his fellow citizens.

Miss Carrie Crouch, Oxford, Miss.
Stuart H. Raibh Miss Stuart H. Raibh Miss Stuart H. Raibh E. H. Shaw. Oxford, Miss.
Carl Lyles, Water Valley, Miss.
A. B. Scruggs, Wynne, Ark.
Shepard & Gluek (40th anniversary number)
Puplis *-1 grade, Maury school
A. Goodfellow
J. W. Bittner
Calloway Coal Co.
Sam E. Lemonds
J. A. Sproles
Freeda Lee and Mary West Askew, Askew.
Freeda Lee and Mary West Askew, Askew. Miss.
Cary Adair Tate
Employes A. R. Hudson & Co.:
A. R. Hudson
C. P. Twiford
C. M. Goodman
T. H. Hill
R. C. Hill
Employes DeSoto Hardware Co. Newberry believes in the unimpeachable virtue of the al mighty dollar, and Berger believes that any man with a dollar is corrupt, and his wickedness increases in proportion to his wealth.

After all, there is not much difference between the capitalistic and socialistic theories. We must fight both if we are to retain our national equilibrium.

COMPROMISE OR SURRENDER?

Mr. David Lawrence, writing for The News Scimitar from Washington, when all indications of a settlement of the coal strike were on the surface, said that "out of a succession of blunders in handling the coal crisis." the plan that will be evolved will be "a typical compromise that might just as well have been proposed two weeks ago and spared the country a period of unnecessary suffering." If the delay in settlement has been due to the desire of the officials authorized to negotiate with the contending elements to save their own faces instead of bringing needed relief, then there has been a woeful neglect of public obligation. The harm that has been done is inestimable. The prospect for greater injury to business than was actually accomplished was monumental. In a great crisis like the coal strike, with half a million workmen idle, hundreds of trains discontinued, essential industries shut down and stores forced back to wartime regulations in opening and closing, it is nothing short of criminal for any element capable of contributing to the adjustment of the difficulty to fail to contribute that influence or to withhold its power. The strike started off like a fight to the finish and is to end with a compromise that might have been reached without work having been suspended for a day. What Mr. Lawrence describes as a compromise may be in fact a surrender.

During the Tri-State fair $50,000 was offered for one hog and refused. When you are buying a few slices of fresh pork from your butcher you will imagine the $50,000 hog has been killed. and that you are buying a few collops from him.

There is a special moral code for genius, says a writer. In other words, if you are not a genius and step aside from the straight and narrow path you are immoral.

"Man who fought the ice trust dead," says a headline, which may mean inferentially that he had alienated a friend that he might need hereafter.

REANORE, Vs. Dec. II. Completion of the organization of the diocese of Southwestern Virginia of the Protestant-Episcopal church, begun have yesterday is expected to take blace today. The Rey Robert C. Jett. D.D. president of the Episcopal school for hove at Lynchburg, has been chosen bishool at the new diocese. His comments were Rishop H. St. George Tucker, of Tokio, Janan the Rey William H. Milfon, D.D. of Wilmington, N.C. and the Rey Francis Craighill, of Wytheville, Va. was elected secretary. The diocese empraces the cities of Roanose. The republic of Roanose Investigation and St. Countless in Western and Routhwestern Virginia. cost of living to come down, might be charged with being timid in high altitudes.

The labor people who say they don't want wages to go up, but

Gov. Roberts says the doctors have no right to strike. The only contention we have heard of their making was the right to cut

"Touching the human side of things," is the caption of an article that doesn't coincide with some of our recent touches.

Contributions For The Goodfellows-Santa Claus Club

Preciously acknowledged$2,964.54

George C. Ehemann .

S. M. N S. L. Ca

Minn Hay John C.

Penrod J

Memphis Coal Co. G. E. Patteson Johnston & Vance Co.

W. F. Bell, Jr. Memphis Motor Car Co. The Samuels Co. Frances Wood

mployes Anderson-Tully

Williams

R. J. Moss, Jr.
Charley Moss
Mike Moss
Mike Moss
Katherine Harris
The Bootery
Irwin Leatherman Cotton Co.
Robert S. Van Cleeff
Carolyn Van Cleeff
James and Dorothy Glenn, Collierville, Tenn
R. D. McRaven, Leland, Miss.
Howard Halle
Harry Kabakoff
Mrs. Howard W. Hamilton
Hearne Tidwell, Jr.
Mrs. E. M. Ellis
A. F. Canada & Co., Coldwater,
Miss.

G. Barton Cotton C Employes Battier's Pharmacy Miss Carrie Crouch, Oxford, Miss.

C. P. Twiford
C. M. Goodman
T. H. Hill
R. C. Hill
Employes DeSoto Hardware Co.

ves F. M. Crump & Co.

Austin Carey Fred Orgill, Jr. John Sneed John Batchelor

Charles Hall

William Beauchamp John O. Walker

Sluaner Davis

Wiggs

G. Duttlinger

W Suries
J. Schnefer
S. Smirney
Medders
R. White
E. Thompson

Horace Moore

I Lemar

James Shelton E. M. Foley mployee Lilly Purity Ice Cream

NEW EPISCOPAL DIOCESE

ROANOKE Vs. Dec 11 Completion the organization of the diocese of

IN VIRGINIA FORMED

Palmer	1:09	HE STARES AT
Calhoun	1.00	ME CONSTANTLY
ajor	6.00	MAYBE HE IS
oyle	5.00	THINKING ABOUT
M Robinson	1.30
Clure and T. M. Cather	10.00	THAT TEN SPOT
F. Booth	2.0	I BORROWED OF HIM
mondson	2.60	Maria and Control of the Control
	5.00	600
thoun	1.90	The state of the s
L. Calhoun	1:00	17.2
rriet M. Calhoun	1.00	P. Salaria
Calhoun	1.00
ackney	10:00	CONTRACTOR OF THE
lurden Co	25.00	La Ante
ane	1.00	What reads
utfins, Jr	1.00
C/2020000000000000000000000000000000000	1.60	国际
ther	1.00
Dinkerspiel	1.00	25 PAGE 1 A PAGE 1

TRADE -" I DON T SEE WHY MARK LET HIS WHISKERS GROW SO LONG. IT'S UNSANITARY STILL - I S POSE IT'S BECAUSE HE ISN T SO GOOD LOOKING AS I AM

TRADE" I WONDER

WHAT MARK IS

THINKING ABOUT

ON THE BOX

TEN SPOT ?"

MARK- "GOOD MORNING

TRADE, WELL YOU

DON'T HAVE TO

SPEAK TO ME IF

YOU DON'T WANT

TO. WHEN ARE

SLIP ME THAT

YOU GOING TO

I COULD LET THEM GROW MUCH LONGER BUT, IT WOULD ONLY AG GRAVATE BROTHER. BESIDES THEY WOULDN'T SHOW

TRADE - "ILL PRETEND I DON'T HEAR. HE MADE A LOT OF DOUGH- WHY SHOULD HE WORRY ME ALL MY LIFE ABOUT THAT TEN DOLLARS?"

Wonder What the Two Brothers Think About-By Briggs

Capyright, 1819, by the Tyrbune Association (New York Tribune).

TRADE - "IF I THOUGHT MARK WOULD GO TO A BARBER AND GET THAT BUSH-OF-HIS TRIMMED I'D COUGH UP THAT TEN BUCKS -

MARK - " I KNOW WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH HIM, HE'S SORE BECAUSE I HAVE LONGER WHISKERS WELL I CAN'T BLAME HIM FOR BEING ENVIOUS

MARK - " CONSIDERING HE'S A BROTHER OF MINE HE'S BEEN' A PRETTY GOOD PAL AT THAT WE'VE HAD MANY A DROP TOGETHER

"How do you like my biscuits, dear?"
asked Mrs. Justwed
"Ah" sighed the ex-soldier husband
"If I'd only had an armful of em te toss into boche dugouts!"—The Home

AMUSEMENTS

Orpheum.

Orpheum.

Although "the old town ain't just what she used to be." improvements having wrought wonderful changes in some quarters, prohibition have in others. Bob Murphy, raconteur and singer at the Orpheum this week, says be is glad to be back and greet many of his old friends. For, be it known, that Murphy is a former Memphian. With his partner. Elmore White, he is winning many new friends twice daily at the Main street playhouse. Like many others, Murphy is surprised that the former ilberail city of Memphis has taken on Puritanic ways, but like the rest of them he has thrived and grown pinker and healthier after the change, and yet the thunders of applause which greet his song to the empty quart Canadian Club bottle. "You Will Come Back and the Whold World Will Be Watting for You." can not help to cause one to wonder why we are dry. In Emma Haig's offering this week Mannger Bertram has one of the breestiest acts of the season. Besides being a modest, domestic little lady, despite her whis wind pirouetting and tripping in her weaterful dancing act, Miss Haig is an indefatigable worker.

Under the tutelage of Emile and John Nathane, the daring equilibrists on the bill with Miss Haig, she is trying out some new stunts and anyone who thinks a dancer's life is all bright lights and foy would change his mind were he to follow the routine of this little lady. Vannah Taylor, genial press agent, admits that she comen down in the mornings and works inte at night on new dean, and that's almost as much work as a press agent does.

Loew's Lyceum,

Robert Warwick, in "An Adventure in Hearts," a screen version of Anthony Hope's well-knewn novel, "Capt. Dieppe," will be shown at Loew's Lyceum beginning Thursday, in connection with the new vaudeville show. The story is of the same romantic adventure type that Hope made famous in his earlier novel, "The Prisoner of Zenda."

Zenda."
"Married Vla Wireless," a nautical musical comedy with a cast of eight and insumerable electrical effects, tops the vaudeville end. Included are Pear the vaudeville end. Included Silv.

Abbott and company, presenting "Silv.
Threads," and three other Loew acts.

A SHORTER WAR.

THEATERS.

MARRIED via WIRELESS A Nautical Musical Comedy

Continuous, 1 to 11 p.m.

Other Big Loew 4 ROBERT

WARWICK

'An Adventure in Hearts"

story of love and the Secret Service, with a soldier of fortune playing a winning game.

15c-20c 15c-25c-35c

HARRY WATSON, IR. MURPHY & WHITE

Featuring George E. Reed and Girls ELINORE & WILLIAMS EMILE and JOHN NATHANE

"P-I-A-N-O-V-I-L-L-E"

EMMERSON & BALDWIN EMMA HAIG

JACK WALDRON KINGGRAMS-TOPICS OF THE DAY

Matinees, 2:15-Nights, 8:15. ices: Mat. (ex. holidaya), 15-25-50e Nights, 15-25-50-75c-$1.00

MOVING PICTURES.

HIGH CLASS PHOTOPLAYES Today Only MABEL

NORMAND

As the little slavey of the circus. Mabel Normand has one of the most humorous roles of her career—and it's great fun for the kiddles.

—Added Feature—

Briggs Comedy, "A Society Secret" -Coming Friday-HELEN EDDY In

"THE TREMBLING HOUR."

Today Only

"Lieut. Dandy, U.S.A." Added Feature

"Hearts and Sparks" Coming Friday JACKIE SAUNDERS

The Wonderful Stories, of OZZ By L. Frank Baum

Dorothy Picks the Princess

They stood before the Royal Bush of the Managhoos in silent admiration. On the central stalk stood poised the figure of a girl so exquisitely formed and colored and so lovely in the expression of her delicate features, that Dorothy thought she had never seen so sweet and adorable creature in all her life. The maiden's gown was soft as satin and fell about her in ample folds, while dainty lace-like traceries trimmed the bodice and sleeves. Her flash was fine and smooth as polished livery, and her poise expressed both dignity and grace. "Who is this?" asked the Wizard, curiously.

curiously.

The Prince had been staring hard at the girl on the bush. Now he answered, with a touch of uneasiness in his cold

"Isn't she ripe now?" asked Dorothy. He hesitated. He hesitated.

"Not quite," said he finally. "It will be several days before she needs to be picked, or at least that is my judgment. I am in no hurry to resign my office and be planted, you may be sure."

"Probably not," declared the Wizard, nodding.

"Probably not," declared the Wizard, nodding.

"This is one of the most unpleasant things about our vebetable lives," continued the Prince, with a sigh, "that while we are in our full prime we must give way to another, and be covered up in the ground to sprout and grow and give birth to other people."

"I'm sure the Princess is ready to be picked, asserted Dorothy, gazing hard at the beautiful girl on the bush. "She's as perfect as she can be."
"Never mind," answered the Prince hastily, "she will be all right for a few days longer, and it is best for me to rule until I can dispose of you strangers, who have come into our land uninvited and must be attended to at one."

100 invited and must be attended to at once.

100 'What are you going to do with us?' asked Zeb 'That is 8 matter I have not quite decided upon,' was the repty. 'I think I shall keep this Wizard until a new Sorcerer is ready to pick, for he seems quite skillful and may be of use to us But the rest of you must be destroyed in some way, and you can hot be planted, because I do not wish horses and cats and meat people growing all over our country.'

You needn't worry,' said Dorothy.'

We wouldn't grow under ground, I'm sure.'

"But why destroy my friends?" asked the little Wizard. "Why not jet them live?"

5.00 the Prince. "They have no right to be the Prince. "They have no right to be not income the sarth at all."

"We didn't ask to come down here; we fell," said Durothy.

"That is no excuse." declared the Prince, coldly.

"The children locked at each other in perplexity, and the Wizard sighed. Eurish and in her soft, purring voice.

"He won't need to destroy me, for 100 [1] don't get something to eat prefix

"He won't need to destroy me, for 100 if I don't get something to eat pretty soon I shall starve to death, and so save him the trouble."

'Of 'if he planted you, he might grow some cat-talls." suggested the Wizard.

'Oh, Eureka' perhaps we can find you some milaweeds to eat, said the boy. "Phoo!" maried the kitten; "I wouldn't bey

"Phoo!" maried the kitten; "I wouldn't touch the nasty things!"

"You don't need milk, Eureka," resen marked Dorothy: "you are big chough now to eat any kind of food.

"If I can get it," added Eureka.

"In hungry myself," said Zeh. "But I noticed some strawberries growing in one of the gardens, and some melons in another place. These people one and the place of the minutes, so you will have no need to ruin our pretty melon vines and herry bushes. Follow me, please, to meet your doom."

The words of the cold and moist vegulate and as he spoke to them he turned and as he spoke to them he turned day and the place of the cold and moist vegulate of the cold and moist vegulate of the cold and moist vegulate of the cold and moist vegulate. The words of the cold and moist vegulate of the cold and moist vegulate. The words of the cold and moist vegulate of the cold and moist vegulate right 'exclaimed Dorothy, eag-Let's pick her while we have her, before the man with the All right orly. Let a NEGRO RIOTER JAILED.

HELENA, Ark Lee II (201) Will Hellum, negro, against whom the Philips county grand jury about a mount has returned an indictine of charging murder in cohection with the negro by surrection at Hoop Spur, the first of October, has been brought to Helena and placed in jail.

Sing comes back

To together they leaned over the goal to the lovely Princess.

Full cried Dorothy, and as they did so the Boyal Lady leaned toward them and the stems snapped and separated from her feet. She was not at all known as the Wigard and Dorothy munaged to lift her gently to the growth and placed in jail.

hands over her eyes an instant, tucked in a stray lock of hair that had become disarranged, and after a look around the garden made those present a gracious bow and said, in a sweet but even tongt colee:

"I thank you very much."

"We salute your Royal Highness." cried the Wizard, kneeling and kissing the content of the Wizard, kneeling and kissing the could not bring her a dish of milk by means of his magical arts.

"We salute your Royal Highness" cried the Wizard, kneeling and kissing Just then the voice of the Prince was closure, following by a number of his people.

Instantly the Princess turned and faced him, and when he saw that she was plead the Prince stood still and began to tremble.

"Sir," said the Royal Lady, with much dignity, "you have wronged me greatly; and would have wronged me still more had not these strangers come to my rescue. I have been ready for picking all the past week but because you were selfish and desired to continue your unlawful rule, you left me to stand silent upon my bush.

"I did not know that you were ripe," answered the Prince in a low voice.

roice.
"Give me the Star of Royelty!" she Slowly he took the shining star from

The people of Mangaboo now formed The people of Mangaboo now formed themselves into a procession and marched toward the glass city to eacost their new ruler to her palace and to perform those ceremonies proper to the occasion. But while the people in the procession walked upon the ground the Princess walked in the alr just above their heads, to show that she was a superior being and more exaited than her subjects.

No one now seemed to pay any attentiom to the strangers, so Dorethy and Zeb and the Wizard let the train pass on and wandered by themselves into the vegetable gardens. They did not bother to cross the bridges over the brooks, but when they came to a stream

I don't believe you are a Wizard at No." answered the little man. "you are quite right. In the strict sense of the word I am not a Wizard, but only a humbug."

The Wizard of Oz bas always been a humbug. agreed Dorothy. "I've known him for a long time."
"If that is so," said the boy, "how could be do that wonderful trick with the nine tiny piglets?"
"Don't know," said Dorothy, "but it the nine tiny piglets?"

"Don't know," said Dorothy, "but it must have been humbug."
"Very true," declared the Wizard, nodding at her. "It was necessary to deceive that ugly Sorcerer and the Prince, as well as their stupid people; but I don't mind telling you, who are my friends, that the thing was only a truck." ick."
"But I saw the little pigs with my vn eyes!" exclaimed Zeb.
"So did I." purred the kitten.
"To be sure." answered the Wizard, you saw them because they were ere. They are in my inside pocket aw. But the pulling of them spart of pushing them togethey again was a pushing them togethey again was and pushing them together again was only a sleight-of-hand trick." "Let's see the pigs," said Eureka, oagerly.

The little man felt carefully in his pocket and pulled out the tiny piglets, setting them upon the grass one by one, where they ran around and nibbled the tender blades.

Weent," said the Wizard, "where everything is small because it's a small island. A sallor brought them to Los Angeles and I gave him nine tickets to the circus for them."

"But what am I going to eat?" wailed the kitten, sitting in front of Dorothy and looking pleadingly into her face.
"There are no cows here to give milk; or any mice, or even grasshoppers. And If I can't eat the piglets you may as well plant me at once and raise chtsup."

"I have an idea," said the Wizard, "that there are fishes in these brooks. Do you like fish?"

"Fish" cried the kitten. "Do I like fish?. Why, they're better than piglets

"Fish" cried the kitten, "Do I like fish?. Why, they're better than piglets or even milk!"

or even milk!"
"Then I'll try to catch you some," said he.

"But won't they be yeg'table, like everything else here?" asked the kitten.

"I think not. Fishes are not animals, and they are as cold and moist as the yegetables themselves. There is no reason, that I can see, why they may not exist in the waters of this strange country."

not exist in the waters of this strange country."

Editor's Note—In next week's chapter, "The Mangaboos Prove Dangerous," our adventurers are in danger of being put to death by the princess, whose advisors persuade her that it would be wise. But the Wizard thinks out a plan to save them. Is this plan successful? Read the story and see.

(Copyright, 1919, by Frank L. Baum, for the George Matthew Adams Service.)

Moving Pictures

Majestic. There is such a thing as carrying novie realism too far, according to some of the actors who took part in the filming of the new Maurice Tourneur production, "Victory," adapted from Joseph Conrad's famous novel, now showing at the Majestic. Native South sea water craft. Chinese junks, ancient whaleboats and a nondescript windjammer of the vintage of about 1880, were some of the "properties" which carried the cast over the bounding deep, while the cast over the bounding deep, while the cameras clicked merrily, to the island of Catalina, a score of miles off the California coast. Half way there these boats began to feel the effects of the choppy sea that was running and shipped water in alarming quantities. One of the craft carrying "extras" over-turned and several people who couldn't swim were with difficulty rescued. Oth-ers arrived at their haven with the "crews" bailing frantically to keep them affoat.

Strand.

Another of those beautiful, capable heroines which Elsie Ferguson portrays so well on the screen is the central figure in the star's new ploture, "Counterfeit," which will be 9n view at the Strand theater, beginning today. The story is said to be novel and exciting, presenting Miss Ferguson as a Southern girl who to replenish her family's falling fortunes secures a resition in the girl who to replenish her family's falling fortunes secures a position in the secret service and rounds up a gang of counterfeiters after a series of exciting adventures. The scenes are laid in the sunny South, in ultra-fashionable Newport, and on board a yacht in the harbor of the famous resort.

Supporting Miss Ferguson in the chief male role is David Powell.

Princess.

Mabel Normand has proved herself an acrobat. In "Jinx," her latest picture, which will be shown at the Princess theater today only. Miss Normand burlesques a series of circus stunts. She appears in loose-fitting tights and a pair of gorgeously flowered corsets trimmed in rosettes, and walks a tight rope over a wooly moth-eaten mattress. Then she conducts a circus of her own with all the animal pets of an orphan asylum dressed up as "wild animals."

Princess walked in the air just above their heads, to show that she was a superior being and more exalted than her subjects.

No one now seemed to pay any attention to the strangers, so Dorothy and Zeb and the Wizard let the train pass on and wandered by themselves into the vegetable gardens. They did not bother to cross the bridges over the brooks, but when they came to a stream they stepped high and walked in the air if you can actually talk."

"Dear me" murmured the Wizard, it is that we can walk so easily in the air."

"Perhaps." answered the Wizard, it is because we are close to the center of the carth, where the attraction of gravitation is very slight. But I ve not ticed that many queer things happen in fairy country?" asked the boy.

"Of course it is." returned Dorothy promptly. "Only a fairy country could have vegetable neople and only in a stern voice. "They are from the Island of Teenty" They are from the Island of Teenty" They are from the Island of Teenty"That's true," sald Zeb, thoughtfully, "They are from the Island of Teenty"That's true," sald Zeb, thoughtfully, "They are from the Island of Teenty"They are from the Isl

-IN-"DAD'S GIRLS"